SAN NICOLAS COMMUNITY PAPER.

Government Makes a Move On Main street Hotel.

We all have seen this building idle for a lot of years, and kept wondering if it will ever get finished? Well the government sent out a letter to the Owners to come and sit down and talk to the government to give an update as there are other inverters interested in the property to keep building up San Nicolas. The owners have 30 days to come to the table.

San Nicolas We Have Our Own Optician In The Village Called EYE LAND

Yes San Nicolas it's true, we have our own Optician in the village Caya Bonaire #23

In an interview with the owner Michael Rovers he explained to us why he chose San Nicolas and THE VILLAGE Mr. Michael explained that he fell in love with the neighborhood and when he saw the location he fell in love with it as he felt this at home feeling, and he bought the house and made it into EYE LAND. Showing trust into a community that no one would even think on putting a business, but Mr. Michael saw something special in the people and the community, and this paid off as the people felt so proud that a 5 star business came into the Village. With great services Like: FREE eye exams, a huge variety of frames, contact lenses and much more. This one stop shop you can get your glasses with in 30 minutes if they are in stock. Visit them at Caya Bonaire 23 or call them at # 5873103 or drop them an e-mail: eyelandopticians@outlook.com

Grand Re-Opening Of Principal Theatre

Grand Re opening of the Principal Theatre in San Nicolas. For this occasion Wendell Bennett, forming part of Meta Corp, in his speech emphasized that this time Principal has come to stay. And within that he hopes that people from San Nicolas and surrounding will support this renewed Cinema. After cutting the ribbon, the invitees were allowed to enter three sections that form part of the Principal Theatre. There was a part of a movie shown as a " sort of "teaser". Afterwards every one was given a "Saco" to consume. They were free to eat it inside or outside the Cinema Building. And so a historic moment for San Nicolas and surrounding was ended and memories of my childhood was flashed back. Welcome Back Principal, you were missed as being a part of San Nicolas. Hope you will never leave us again. And a thousand times Thumbs Up, for Eduardo, Eddie, Devin, and all the others that revive that what is being considered as a fixed part of San Nicolas, Thank You Very Much.

Tramerdia Burn Down Flat Intentionally

Neighbors close to Pieter Boer school woke up Thursday in the wee hours on the morning smelling smoke, when they came outside they saw a blaze and smoke coming from above Pieter Boer School were they have a Tramerdia (afternoon school) Police and fire fighters were called, but due to the small size of this location the fire destroyed this in around 10 minutes. Fire Fighters said it looks to be intentional, but they will keep investigating. School is almost ready to start and this is really needed so let's see how fast insurance or even government moves.

San Nicolas Very Own Poet Cy-Anne N.E Simmons

Dear Winning Season ,

When you finally come I'll be ready.
Ready to indulge in my hard work.
Ready for the haters that will never understand my past grind.
Ready for my own destructive thoughts,
who will second guess if I truly deserve
to be there.
Ready to look back and laugh at my anxiety.

Ready to cry because my yearn and dedication was so intense.
Ready to appreciate my past sacrifices
just to be there.
And Oh! Best believe I'll be Ready to Flex!

Just on one person especially.
I wanna flex on my own damn Self.
That old me is the only person I really want to impress and marvel in my own personal significant success.
I Guess .. what I'm trying to say is enjoy every beautiful waking moment of your well deserved destination.

Truly Yours ,

.....” Who ever you are”

P.S : Congratulations.

San Nicolas Very Own Poet David Quant

Finish strong

New years often start with big goals,
Class rooms often start full of students,
And mountain climbs full of excitement,
But as time goes, hurdles get higher,
And timelines get stretched out,
Plan A is switched to B and C,
And the journey you imagined is not the one you see,
Doubts attacks the goal and the purpose you once felt,
When the fuel of motivation runs out, make sure there's 'determination' in your tank,
The higher up the mountain, the cloudier it gets,
Instead of letting it cloud your vision, use it as a sign that you're on the right path...
